

BANDRA BHAI

The Smugglers Cocktail Bar

Fitzrovia

THE STORY

Bandra – once an old, predominantly catholic fishing village in Bombay, now a thriving urban neighbourhood.

Bhai – translated as a brother in hindi, also street slang for gangster.

Until the early 90s, India was a closed economy. Limited items were available to buy and imported goods were scarce.

This created a thriving black market and a ring of “smugglers” who could get you everything from exotic malt whisky, gold watches or Japanese televisions to all kinds of other illicit stuff, if you knew how to get to them. Often there were fronts for these dodgy dealings, sometimes posing as a photo studio or even sexologists.

Bandra Bhai is our tongue in cheek tribute to smuggler's all cash operation back in the day
